

29th MELTA INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

More than 60 years of service to the nation

Announcement

Postponement of the 29th MELTA International Conference

Every year, we look forward to welcoming delegates to our international conference. Preparations for our conference this year have been progressing well. Key speakers have confirmed their participation and we have received many proposals from delegates to present papers, conduct workshops and participate in our Teacher Showcase events.

However, given growing concerns around COVID-19, and a press statement yesterday (11 March 2020) by the Ministry of Health Malaysia which strongly advises the postponement of mass gatherings to reduce the risk of infection, the Malaysian English Language Teaching Association has made the difficult decision to postpone its 29th MELTA International Conference.

We remain committed to organising the conference at the Equatorial Penang whilst prioritising the safety and health of our delegates.

If you already registered and paid to attend the conference, please email us at meltaconference@gmail.com to begin your refund process. If you have made reservations at the Equatorial Hotel, we have confirmed there are no fees to cancel. If you purchased flights, we believe many carriers are offering refunds for event cancellations due to COVID-19. We are happy to provide you with supporting documents to facilitate the process.

We thank you for your understanding and look forward to welcoming you to Penang, Malaysia soon. Do visit our conference website from time to time for the latest updates.
